RULE SUMMARY

- 812-001-0200 is amended to correct grammar and adopts the form "Home Inspection Consumer Notice".
- 812-003-0120 is amended to reorganize and clarify existing language and to exempt promotional gifts from the requirement that such items contain the CCB license number.
- 812-003-0140 is amended to revise the wording for consistency.
- 812-004-0320 is amended to remove the third-party beneficiary provision that a buyer who makes a home purchase conditioned upon an inspection report purchased by the homeowner will no longer be able to file a complaint for damages.
- 812-008-0070 is amended to waive the continuing education requirements, if within the two-year period preceding renewal a home inspector serves on active duty in the United States armed forces, including mobilization or deployment.
- 812-008-0110 is amended to add language to comply with the requirements of ORS 408.450 that excuses certified home inspectors on active duty service from paying license renewal fees.
- 812-008-0202 is amended to require on the first page of the contract and inspection report a disclaimer notifying any person other than the home inspector's client that they should not rely upon the report and to revise the reference to the notice requirement to the new CCB notice "Home Inspection Consumer Notice".
- 812-020-0062 is amended, see ORS 701.124(7)(b), which authorizes CCB to exempt commercial contractors by rule. Exempts continuing education requirement if, within the two-year period preceding renewal, a commercially endorsed contractor serves on active duty in the United States armed forces, including mobilization or deployment.

ORS 183.335(2)(b)(G) requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing the negative economic impact of the rule on business.

Prescribed Fees

The following prescribed fees are established:

- (1) Application to become certified, $50.
- (2) Test, first attempt, $50.
- (3) Test, each sitting to retake one or more sections, $25.
- (4) Initial two-year Certification, $150.
- (5) Certification renewal (two years), $150.
- (6) Refunds:

(a) The agency shall not refund fees or civil penalties overpaid by an amount of $20 or less unless requested by the payer in writing within three years after the date payment is received by the agency, as provided by ORS 293.445.

(b) Except as set forth in subsection (6)(c) of this rule, all fees are non-refundable and nontransferable.

(c) When an applicant withdraws their application for a certification or a certification renewal prior to issuance of a certification or certification renewal, or fails to complete the certification process, the agency may refund the certification fee but shall retain a processing fee of $40.

(d) If the agency receives payment of any fees or penalty by check and the check is returned to the agency as an NSF check, the payer of the fees will be assessed an NSF charge of $25 in addition to the required payment of the fees or penalty.

(7)(a) Any certified home inspector in the United States armed forces need not pay a renewal fee if such fee would be due during the certified home inspector's active duty service.
